

Preventing Sexual Harassment

Our half day sexual harassment prevention training course is designed to foster a safe and productive work environment by discussing what is considered sexual harassment, prevention techniques, and what to do if sexual harassment is suspected, observed or experienced on the job. Suitable for both employees and managers, this course introduces legal considerations and specifically discusses State of Vermont policies and procedures.